The premise of Captivating...

Every woman was once a little girl. And every little girl holds in her heart her most precious dreams. She longs to be swept up into a romance, to play an irreplaceable role in a great adventure and to be the Beauty of the story. Those desires are far more than child's play. They are core to understanding the feminine heart.

And yet how many women do you know who ever find that life? As the years pass by, the heart of a woman gets pushed aside, wounded and buried. She finds no romance except in novels, no adventure except on television, and she doubts very much that she will ever be the Beauty in any tale.

Most women think they have to settle for a life of efficiency and duty, chores and errands, striving to be the woman she "ought" to be, but often feeling they have failed. Sadly, too many messages for Christian women add to the pressure. "Do these ten things and you will be a godly woman." The effect has not been good on the feminine soul.

But her heart is still there. Sometimes when she watches a movie, sometimes in the middle of the night, her heart begins to speak again. A thirst rises within her to find the life she was meant to live... The life she dreamed of as a little girl.

The message of Captivating is this: Your heart matters more than anything else in all of creation. The desires you had as a little girl and the longings you still feel as a woman - they are telling you of the life God created you to live. He offers to come now, as the Hero of your story - to rescue your feminine heart and release you to live as a woman, fully alive. A woman truly captivating!
